ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I cannot be responsible for the authenticity of the dates and histories of the families that have been included in this book, or the correct genealogy of each family. However, I have done the very best I could with the information from the following sources to establish family lines and descendants according to number.

Family Bible Records — Family history records sent to me by many Hendershots who were so gracious in helping me with this gigantic task.

And last, but not least —

From the memories of many Hendershots, ages from 80 to 100 years old, whom I visited personally and talked with by the hour. Many had as clear a memory of yesterday as most of us have of today. Many of these folks have passed on since I talked with them, and many of them were looking forward to reading this very book, but could not wait for its completion.

May God bless each and everyone that helped with this book. Without your help it could not have been possible.

WHY WE CONSIDER MICHAEL HENNESCHIED A "VON HAYDERSCHATTE"

When Michael Henneschied came to this country in 1710, he and his family had among their belongings, silverware, cuff links, dishes and silver snuff boxes, bearing the Crest of "Von Hayderschatte."

NOTE: It was the custom in those days, that when a man left his home, some of the treasures were given unto him as keepsakes. This is in accordance with information from genealogists in the Old Country.

Cleveland Blanchard Von Hayderschatte spent several years in Germany searching for information around the turn of the century and claims to have come up with the following information:

Baron Von Hayder married Baroness Von Schatte enobled January 12, 1612 by Maximillian and the name became "Von Hayderschatte."

There is no further record of the original Baron Von Hayderschatte.

Michael Hayder Von Hayderschatte, grandson of the original Von Hayderschatte, and his family embraced Lutheranism and for this act his entire estate was confiscated. This was in consonance with the persecutions of the Catholic Church about 1675.

Michael (Von Hayderschatte) Henneschied, born 1674, was the son of the above Michael. He was born in Bavaria, Germany. Michael married Katherine Ann Von Bauer Von Heinrichschofen, daughter of Sir Herrn Franz Christoph Von Heinrichschofen, Minister to the Court of Regensburg at that time. Katherine was born in 1680 and they were married in Vienna.

Michael and Katherine and three children came to America on the ship "Lyon" in 1710.

NOTE: I have tried to verify this information with several genealogists in Europe, but they tell me that due to the wars since 1900, with so many buildings and churches along with the records having been destroyed, that it would no longer be possible to find so much information.

Al Hendershot

NOTE: Many of the Canadian Hendershots also had some of the silverware, dishes, etc., with the Hayderschatte Crest.

Cleveland Hendershot visited with some of the Hendershots living around New Germantown and German Valley, New Jersey, around 1890, and some of the grandchildren of Michael Henneschied were still living and gave him much information.

“Whether you accept this or not is up to you, I have only passed on the story.”

CLEVELAND BLANCHARD VON HAYDRSCHATTE HENDERSHOT

Cleveland Blanchard was born in Cleveland, Ohio on October 8, 1868. He was the son of Robert Henry Hendershot, the "Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock" whose story can be found on page 43. Cleveland was named after the city of Cleveland, Ohio.

He was a Catholic in religion, a member of the Sons of Civil War Veterans of Somerset, Pennsylvania, and for thirty years was a member of the Order of St. Francis.

Cleve was a musician, writer, artist, and world traveler. He and his father "Robert Henry" traveled in the U.S.A., England, and in Canada, playing music. They played before the following presidents: Benjamin Harrison, Rutherford B. Hayes, James A. Garfield, and Chester A. Arthur.

Cleveland B. Hendershot traveled for more than thirty years in every state in the United States, all over Canada, and in many foreign countries searching for information of the connection of the Hayderschatte, Hendershot families. He visited personally with many Hendershot families gathering dates and stories of Hendershots.

Cleveland wrote out (in longhand) much of his findings and placed a copy of this in the Newberry Library of Chicago, Illinois.

Cleveland Hendershot died June 29, 1940, and is interned in "Forest Home Cemetery" at Forest Park, Illinois, in the Hendershot family plot. Robert Henry, his father, and Alice L. Blanchard, his mother, and Honore Mae, his sister, are also buried here. A very large monument with the Crest of "Von Hayderschatte" chiseled on it rests over the plot.

To Cleveland B. Hendershot, we owe many thanks for his untiring efforts in gathering much of the information contained in this book.

"Fame is a slow decay, and ever thus shall pass away."

YOU MUST READ THIS PAGE BEFORE GOING ON
AS IT IS THE KEY TO THE INFORMATION OF YOUR ANCESTORS, IF YOU CAN FIND THEM.

Beginning with #1 Michael Henneschied, each generation has a number which is easy to find, as follows:

I Michael Henneschied
11 First child of Michael, etc.

KEY TO GENEALOGY

Here is a ten generation example:

1721138211 Dolores Hendershot, born July 5, 1929 in Harwood, Texas.

1	Michael	7th Great Grandfather
17	Johann Georg	6th Great Grandfather
172	Michael.....	5th Great Grandfather
1721	Peter	4th Great Grandfather
17211	David.....	3rd Great Grandfather
172113	Chauncy.....	2nd Great Grandfather
1721138	.Simon Zelotus	Great Grandfather
17211382	Charles C.	Grandfather
172113821	Ernest Chauncy ...	Her father
1721138211	Dolores

So if you find your number, put it down in the same sequence, and trace your ancestors and their families back.

Remember this: There are many families with 10 or more children, so here is an example of how the 10th child will be numbered — 1156-10-1-11 etc.

1		Michael
11		First child of Michael
115		5th Child of 11
1156		6th child of 115
1156-10		10th child of 1156
1156-10-1...		First child of 1156-10 etc.

If you cannot find your genealogy, look in Chapter 12.

GENEALOGY OF

THE HENDERSHOT FAMILY IN AMERICA

by

Al Hendershot

MICHAEL HENNESCHIED

First to Land in America in 1710

In the reign of Louis XIV, King of France, in the "Thirty Years War," from twelve to twenty thousand Germans fled the Rhine Provinces of Germany and went to England. On December 29, 1709, "Ten Sails of Vessels" embarked from Plymouth, England for New York City, New York, U.S.A. This is known in history as the "Second German Emigration." This voyage lasted six months, and they suffered severe hardships. One boat was driven back to Plymouth, England during a terrible storm, and another boat was overturned in Plymouth Harbor and all passengers were drowned. Over seven hundred persons died on this voyage, and all the rest were diseased, and were landed on "Nutten's Island" (now Governors Island, New York) until the State of New York could restore them to health and place them on estates.

Our ancestor Michael Henneschied and his wife Katherine Ann and three children were among the last to land from the ship "Lyon" on June 13, 1710. Ann was Queen of England at this time, and she sent Governor Hunter of New Jersey along with the above three thousand emigrants.

Michael Henneschied settled first in New York State, then moved his family to New Jersey, settled on the Millstone River near the forks of the Raritan River and the Millstone River in Hunterdon County, then moved to New Germantown (now Oldwick), New Jersey.

Michael married Katherine Ann Von Bauer Von Heinrichshofen, daughter of Sir Herr Franz Christoph von Heinrichshofen, Minister to Court of Regensburg. Michael's profession was that of Violin Builder, and he taught this art to several of his children and grandchildren. Michael's home in New Germantown (Oldwick) was named "Hoenhausen" or "High House," so called because it was built on a high stone basement wall with a very high front porch. This home was in the family for two generations and still stands in Oldwick in very good condition. The writer personally visited this home in 1960. It was built about 1743, and Michael died here in 1749 and the home passed to his son, Michael, who kept the home until 1758. It was then sold to Bryan Laferty. The lot on which the house stood cost eighty-five pounds in English money or about $450.00 American money. Some of the best families of New Germantown lived in this house at one time. Michael and Katherine Ann are buried in the Lutheran Cemetery just across the street from this home, and at one time a very large gravestone marked their grave with the "Crest of Von Hayderschatte" engraved upon it.

Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church was organized in 1714 by Justus Falckner, first Lutheran minister ordained in America. The church edifice was erected in 1750 under the leadership of Henry Melchoir Muhlenberg, patriarch of the Lutheran Church in America. Michael and Katherine are buried here.

Michael Henneschied died January 19, 1749 and his funeral was presided over by John Albert Weygand, DD, Lutheran Preacher. He was sick for two years and when he died the song "Lord, Teach Me Mine End to Know" was sung at his funeral. Michael was a Gentleman of Education and, while he and Katherine were Lutherans, many of his descendants are found as Methodists, Catholics, Mormons, Quakers, Baptists, Church of Christ and perhaps others.

CHAPTER 2

MICHAEL HENNESCHIED AND FAMILY

SECOND GENERATION

- 1 Michael Henneschied (first in America) Born in Bavaria in 1674.
Katherine Ann Von Heinrichshofen, wife. Born in Bavaria 1680.
Michael died January 17, 1749.

Katherine died February 15, 1757.

Both are buried in a cemetery in New Germantown, New Jersey, which is now called Oldwick. In the early days of World War I, German Valley was changed to Long Valley and New Germantown was changed to Oldwick due to the feeling against the Germans in our country.

Following are the children of Michael and Catherine who are the second generation in the United States of America.

- 11 Casper, born November 13, 1699 in Bavaria.
Casper was Commissioner of Roads in Hunterdon County, New Jersey in 1735. It is believed that the Canadian branch of the Hendershot Family are descendants of Casper. (John and Peter, his grandchildren.)
- 12 Sophia Maria, born November 6, 1704 in Bavaria.
- *13 Peter, born October 17, 1709.
Peter could have been born in England, as Michael set sail from Plymouth, England, December 29, 1709.
- *14 Michael, born August 3, 1712 or 1714 on Millstone River, near Raritan River.
- 15 Elizabeth Ann, born January 17, 1716 on Millstone River.
- 16 Eva Ann, born December 27, 1717 on the banks of the Millstone River.
- *17 Johann Georg, born January 23, 1720 on the Millstone River.

Johann Georg Hendershott's will was probated January 9, 1798 in Greenwich Township, Warren County, New Jersey. As John Hendershot he leased a plantation of 333 acres of land in West Jersey Society Lands. Johann is said to have returned to Germany in 1749 and collected about 2000 pounds in English money (which was quite a sum of money in those days) from the Estate of Von Hayderschatte. He returned to America on the ship, Edinburg, from Rotterdam with James Russel as Master. He landed in New York on September 15, 1749. Upon his return he bought an estate of his own of 400 acres which he named "Ten Schotts." His wife, Catherine Bodine, was a descendant of the House of DeBaudin of France. Johann and Catherine were members of the St. James Lutheran (Straw Church) of Greenwich Township, Warren County, New Jersey, where he had also been a trustee, and all their children were baptised there.

| *14116 | David | Born January 12, 1785 in New Jersey. |
| *14117 | Isaac | Born March 1, 1792 in Bourbon County, Kentucky. |

Casper moved to Kentucky around 1788 and settled in Bourbon County, then moved to Miami County, Ohio, near the town of Piqua, in Washington Township, in 1805. The first M. N. Church of Piqua was formed at the home of Casper Hendershot, and he was one of the first six families to settle in Washington Township, Miami County, Ohio.

- 1412 John Hendershot, born 1764 in Sussex County, New Jersey. Wife?

John died in 1840 in Monroe County, Ohio. He had a large family, but only three sons are known.

- *14121 David Born 1788 in Greene County, Pennsylvania.
 *14122 George W. Born 1791 in Greene County, Pennsylvania.
 *14123 Jonathon Born 1797 in Greene County, Pennsylvania.

John Hendershot enlisted in the Pennsylvania Militia, Bedford County Rangers of Frontiers, under Captain William McCall. In 1782 after the Revolutionary War, he moved to Washington County, Pennsylvania (now Greene County) and then he moved to Monroe County, Ohio, and built a cabin in Malaga Township before 1815. The town of Malaga was laid out by John Hendershot. The first settlers of Malaga Township were the families of John Hendershot, Stillwell Truax, Mathew Rogers, Martin Fogle, Frederick Hayes, Peter Mann, David Mann, William Kennard, James Graham and David Lupton. This was before 1815. The first election in Malaga Township was held at the home of Peter Mann in 1820. There were 22 votes cast, among them were the names of John and Jonathon Hendershot.

As a Revolutionary War soldier, John applied for his pension in March, 1824. He received his pension in 1834, Reference: Pension Number S 9574 Washington, D.C.

- 1451 Michael Hendershot, born July 14, 1771 in Newton, New Jersey. Died 1848 in Belmont County, Ohio. Elanor Schemmerhorn, first wife.

14518 Sarah Maria Born September 13, 1820 in Belmont County, Ohio. Married Henry Lohmire.

*14519 Michael Born 1823 in Belmont County.

¹⁴¹
Michael ~~#1451~~ was a minuteman or private listed among the one thousand soldiers from Sussex County, New Jersey, in the Continental Army and in the New Jersey State Militia during the Revolutionary War. His will is filed in Court Records of Belmont County, Ohio.

Michael and his second wife, Mary Space, came to Belmont County, Ohio, February 15, 1815 and settled on Captina Creek where they lived all their lives and are buried in the Old Hendershot Cemetery on their farm. The writer visited the place where the cemetery was on this farm in 1960 and found that the man who had owned the farm several years ago had hauled all the grave markers away and had made a potato patch over the graves of the dead.

1455 Isaac Hendershot, born 1788 in New Jersey. Died in 1817 in Belmont County, Ohio. Married November 28, 1810 in Belmont County.

Susannah Shoemaker (Schumacher), born May 13, 1788 in Belmont County, Ohio.

14553 Abel Born February 19, 1815, moved to Michigan.

*14554 Jacob Born September 1, 1816.

Isaac was killed when he fell out of a haymow onto a stake driven in the ground at the foot of a ladder in 1817. A few months later Susannah married a Mr. Dausch and they had two daughters.

1715 William Hendershot, born December 11, 1778 in Columbia County, Pennsylvania. Died April 1, 1867 in Lenawee County, Michigan.

Mary Kitchen, born 1778 in Sussex County, New Jersey. Died January 11, 1860 in Macon, Michigan.

William and Mary were married March 1, 1799 at Danville, Pennsylvania.

Mary was a sister of Jane Kitchen who married William's brother, John Hendershot, in a double wedding ceremony. William and Mary moved to Mt. Morris, New York in 1830, then on to Lenawee County, Michigan a year later. They were both Presbyterians and Democrats. He was known as the "Lark." He was a skilled marksman, a hunter and trapper, and a farmer. William made excellent violins and taught music, both vocal and instrumental.

Henry Benham moved to Illinois in 1835 with his parents. He studied law at Illinois College in Jacksonville, Illinois. He and his parents then moved to Burlington, Iowa in 1840. Henry was admitted to the bar in 1841. He then settled in Ottumwa, Iowa in 1844. On September 17, 1846 he was appointed Colonel of the Second Regiment, First Brigade, 4th Division of Iowa Militia by Governor Clark. In December of 1848 he was appointed by the United States Supreme Court as United States Commissioner of Iowa to act in conjunction with Joseph C. Brown, United States Commissioner of Missouri, to run a boundary line between Iowa and Missouri.

Colonel Henry was elected a member of the Iowa Historical and Geological Society. He was elected State Senator on August 21, 1851, serving four years. He was a member of the Judiciary Committee when the Iowa Code was enacted. He was Judge of District Court from 1857 to 1860 and Alderman of Ottumwa in 1859. He was also Mayor of Ottumwa from 1887 to 1888.

Mary Hendershot had two slaves, a house servant named Mary and her coachman named John. When the slaves were freed, Mary and John took the name of Hendershot. Note: The writer has found several colored families of the Hendershot name who were descendants of the slave families that took the name of Hendershot. Henry's family were Protestant Episcopal but some of the family became Catholic later.

James Hendershot was an Indian Scout. He came overland by wagon train, arriving in Oregon around 1850. His wife, with her two very young children, followed him about a year later, travelling from Youngstown, Ohio to New York by stagecoach, then sailing around Cape Horn, South America to San Francisco, then by stagecoach again to Oregon. James was auditor and sheriff of Josephine County, Oregon from 1854 to 1860. He was elected to the Oregon State Legislature from 1862 to 1866, as State Senator from 1868 to 1872, and as Oregon Land Registrar from 1872 to 1874. Harriet and her daughter, Minerva, were champions of Women's Rights and lectured all over Oregon. In a convention of women at Portland, Oregon, Mr. Mitchell, a State Senator, told the convention, "The good women of Oregon do not want to vote." Mrs. Harriet Hendershot stood up and said "Mr. Senator, I am a good woman and I want to vote." She carried the day and was elected a life member of Women's Suffrage of Oregon.

James and Harriet lived in a beautiful home named "Forest Home." He was a Democrat, and he and Harriet are buried in Episcopal Churchyard at Cove, Oregon, just a short distance from Hendershot Point, on the Pacific Coast.

THE FAME OF ROBERT HENRY HENDERSHOT

The Famous Drummer Boy of the Rapahannock

In 1867 there was published in Chicago, Illinois, by Church and Goodman, a 202-page book entitled "Robert Henry Hendershot," or "The Brave Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock" and written by William Sumner Dodge.

Here are the experiences of a heroic drummer of the Civil War. His picture with signature under it is on the fly leaf. In the front of the volume is a large number of letters of reference recommending the boy. These are signed by such famous people as President Abraham Lincoln, General A. E. Burnside, General U. S. Grant, General George G. Meade, F. E. Spinner, head of the Treasury of the United States. Here are three of the letters of recommendation:

"I know something of this boy, and believe he is very brave, manly and worthy."

A. Lincoln

"I concur in the above."

E. O. C. Ord, Major General

"His Excellency ABRAHAM LINCOLN:

It affords me the greatest pleasure to testify to the great gallantry and loyalty of young Hendershot. He served under me for some time; and at the battle of Fredericksburg displayed most distinguished courage.

A. E. Burnside, Major General

ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES

CITY POINT, VA., January 14, 1865

"I would most respectfully recommend this boy for a cadetship at West Point Military Academy, during the ensuing year."

U. S. Grant, Lieutenant General

"I cheerfully concur in the above recommendation."

George G. Meade, Major General

He was born in Cambridge, Michigan on the 11th day of December, 1850. When the Civil War came along, he tried several times to join the Michigan troops, but was too young. At last he ran away, misrepresented his age and got in.

Here's his story from The Civil War, Song and Story,
by Frank Moore, published by P. F. Collier,
New York, 1889, pages 245, 246.

"THE DRUMMER BOY OF THE RAPPAHANNOCK. Recently, a bright boy, with dark eyes and ruddy cheeks, gave a brief history of his adventures at the battle of Fredericksburg. He was neatly dressed in a military suit of gray cloth, and carried in his hands a pair of drumsticks; his drum was destroyed by the fragment of a shell immediately after his landing on the river bank, in that hurricane of sulphury fire and iron hail on the 12th of December, 1862.

The reader will distinctly remember that for several days a curtain of thick fog rose up from the waters of the Rappahannock, completely hiding from view the artillery that crowned the opposite hills, and the infantry that crowded the sheltering ravines; but the preparation for the great fight, so hopefully commenced, was continued amid the thunder of cannon and the volcanic eruptions of exploding batteries.

The hazardous work of laying the pontoon bridges was frequently interrupted by the murderous fire of rebel sharpshooters, concealed in the stores and dwelling-houses on the bank of the river. To dislodge these men, and drive them out of their hiding places, seemed an impossible task. At a given signal our batteries opened with a terrific fire upon the city, crashing through the walls of houses and public buildings, not sparing even the churches, in which treason had been taught as paramount to Christianity. In this storm of shot and shell, which ploughed the streets and set the buildings on fire, the sharpshooters survived, like salamanders in the flames, and continued to pour a deadly fire upon our engineers and bridge builders.

In this dilemma it became evident that the bridges could not be laid except by a bold dash. Volunteers were called for to cross in small boats; forthwith, hundreds stepped forward and offered their services. One hundred men were chosen, and at once started for the boats. Robert Henry Hendershot, the hero of our sketch, was then a member of the Eighth Michigan, acting as a drummer. Seeing a part of the Michigan Seventh preparing to cross the river, he ran ahead and leaped into the boat. One of the officers ordered him out, saying he would be shot. The boy replied he didn't care, he was willing to die for his country. When the boy found that the Captain would not permit him to remain in the boat, he begged the privilege of pushing the boat off, and the request was granted. Whereupon, instead of remaining on shore, he clung to the stern of the boat, and, submerged to the waist in water, he crossed the Rappahannock. Soon as he landed, a fragment of shell struck his old drum and knocked it to pieces. Picking up a musket, he went in search of rebel relics and obtained a secesh flag, a clock, a knife and a bone ring. On opening a back door in one of the rebel houses, he found a rebel wounded in the hand, and ordered him to surrender. He did so, and was taken by the boy soldier to the Seventh Michigan. When the boy recrossed the river from Fredericksburg, General Burnside said to him, in the presence of the army, "Boy, I glory in your spunk; if you keep on this way a few years more, you will be in my place."

At the battle of Murfreesboro', where the Union forces were taken by surprise, before daylight in the morning, after beating the long roll, and pulling the fifer out of bed to assist him, he threw aside his drum, and seizing a gun, fired sixteen rounds at the enemy from the window of the courthouse in which regiment was quartered; but the Confederates were compelled to surrender, and they were all taken prisoners, but were immediately paroled, and afterwards sent to Camp Chase, Ohio."

A Letter from President Abraham Lincoln

Executive Mansion,
Washington, March 15, 1864.

Hon. Sec. of War

My dear Sir:

Please see the gallant Drummer-boy, Robert H. Hendershot, whose history is briefly written on the fine drum presented him which he now carries. He must have a chance, and if you can find any situation suitable to him, I shall be obliged.

Yours truly,
A. Lincoln

Charles Arthur was a United Brethren Preacher, and aided Carrie Nation in her campaign to make Kansas a prohibition state with his preaching and financial aid and support of his church members. He was at Winfield, Kansas at that time, and there is a legend that the United Brethren pulpit at Winfield carried bullet holes in it, shot there by the liquor element as a means of discouraging the young preacher in his fight for prohibition. He was warned to stay off the streets of Winfield, but he armed himself with a 12-gauge shotgun and paraded the streets, daring the wets to make something of it.

This chapter contains information of the Hendershots that could not be identified with the Genealogy of Michael for lack of sufficient information, nevertheless, they are his descendants and maybe sometime can find the missing link.

Each family starts with the number 1--, etc., and ends with ===== Beyond this mark is another family entirely.

If anyone cannot find their genealogy and want to write me, I will send a genealogy sheet and do all I can to help.

| 1-13 | Arthur McKinley | Born December 18, 1896 in Sandusky. |
| 1-14 | Dorothy | Born June 15, 1901 in Sandusky. |

Truman and Sarah lived in St. Clair County in 1865, then moved to Sanilac County, then on to Huron County and settled at Bad Axe.

Sarah celebrated her 82nd birthday March 5, 1934 at which time there were eight of her children, forty-five grandchildren, sixty-five great grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren living.

Sarah told of many incidents of rugged living in the wilderness of Michigan, how they were burned out of house and home twice, once in 1871 and again in 1881. For many years their only neighbors were Indians, and many nights they had to build fires around the house to keep the wolves away, and even then the wolves would climb on top of the house trying to get in. On her 82nd birthday she said, "Although pioneering life was rugged, as we had to get along without any luxuries, still I have many pleasant memories, and I really believe we pioneers had more real pleasure and enjoyment in our simple way than most people of today with all the luxury, hustle and bustle, speed and hurry-up ways."

Truman was a private in Company K, 4th Regiment of Michigan Calvary Volunteers. He enrolled on December 5, 1863 and was discharged on July 27, 1865. Truman died December 17, 1906.

THE CANADIAN HENDERSHOTS

In 1792, John and Peter Hendershot came to Niagara Peninsula Ontario, Canada. They were born in New Jersey, U.S.A. But they declared themselves U.E.L. and served in the King's Army. John and Peter were descendants of Michael Henneschied (Von Hayderschatt) who came to America in 1710. However, as there is no definite proof as to what family they came from, the Genealogy number will start with 0001, denoting that John and Peter were great grandsons of Michael. It is the belief of many Canadian Hendershots that John and Peter were grandsons of Casper Henneschied, first son of Michael. Following is the genealogy of the Canadian Hendershots, gathered from many Hendershot families in Canada and the United States.

0001 John Hendershot, U.E.L. was a British soldier in the famous "Lincoln Militia" of Lincoln County, Ontario. He was killed in the battle of Queenstown Heights, Ontario, and no further information is known.

0002 Peter Hendershot, born 1775 in New Jersey, U.S.A., settled in Pelham Township, Welland County, Ontario. His estate was over 250 acres, known as "Hendershot's Farm Houses." Peter was called "Lord of Hendershot Farms." This was one of the finest farms in Welland County with the finest buildings in the township. He raised cattle as well as general farming. From 1812 until 1815, Peter furnished large quantities of beef and other farm supplies to the British Army, in command of General Sir John Brock, who was Peter's lifelong friend. On one occasion General Brock gave Peter a gold sovereign as a keepsake. This coin was handed down through Peter's descendants for many years. There was Sterling silverware and dishes with the "Von Hayderschatte" Coat of Arms on them in the possession of Peter, and should be among some of his descendants now. Peter Hendershot appears on the official list "Empire Loyalists" with the remark—"Soldier Jersey Volunteers."

Peter received from the British Government on April 5 1797, a block of land containing 200 acres—lots 10 in 6th and 7th concessions of Pelham, and each of his seven sons also received land grants as follows:

Jacob, 200 acres, Lot 20, in Orn.

David, Lot 20 in the Fourth of Dawn, January 25, 1832.

Abraham, Lot 23 in the Third of Dawn, February 25, 1832.

Peter, the south halves of Lots 24 and 25 and south part of Lot 23, in the 11th of Gossfield, October, 1835.

Henry, north half of Lot 24, in the 10th of Gossfield on September 5, 1835.

William, acreage in 10th of Gossfield, June 6, 1835.

John, allowance was made for him, but he did not locate on his grant.

When Peter died, the estate of "Hendershot Farms" passed to his son, William B. Hendershot.

0002 Peter Hendershot, born 1775 in New Jersey, U.S.A. Died June 18, 1819.

00021 William Bradley Hendershot.

After taking over "Hendershot Farms," he was called Master of "Hendershot Farm Houses" and later known as "King of Thorold" of Thorold, Ontario. William was a man of industry, intelligence and influence. He held the highest offices of the land. He served two terms in the old Niagara Falls Legislature (1848) from his district;

he was Mayor of Thorold for five terms, 1851-1852-1853-1854 and again in 1861. William represented Thorold in the Legislature, 1851-1852-1853-1854 and 1861. He owned the largest flour mills in Canada, "The Welland Mills," "Keefier Mills" and the "White Mills" on the old Welland Canal. These mills operated day and night and the business amounted to many hundred thousand dollars yearly. He was a very wealthy man.

CHAPTER 14

THE THREE HINNERSCHITZ BROTHERS

Berks County near Reading and Tuckertown, Pennsylvania

Around 1770, there were three brothers, Isaac, George and Conrad Hinnerschitz, settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania. As to where these men came from, it cannot be ascertained; however, according to Miss Rebecca Rickenbach, daughter of Eliza (Hinnerschitz) Rickenbach and James Rickenbach, the original name was Hendershot or "Henneschied." James Rickenbach was a ship builder and, at one time, lived at 2092 Buren Avenue, Camden, New Jersey, and Rebecca lived at Route 2, Box 72 in Reading, Pennsylvania, at the time of the interview with her by Cleve Hendershot of Chicago. There have been several changes in the name of the family since 1770, as you can see in the following genealogy, and most of them now use the name Hendershot. However, there are several families living around Williamsport, Pennsylvania, that still use "Hinnerschitz." As we do not know where they fit in, this genealogy is separated from the "Hendershot" tree. Yet the various spellings lead back to "Hendershot."

- A - Isaac Hinnerschitz
- B - George Hinnerschitz
- C - Conrad Hinnerschitz

- A Isaac Hinnerschitz had a large family. Among them were the following sons and last known addresses:

All Were Located in Reading, Pennsylvania

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| A-1 Amos Hinnerschitz | 1651 North 10th Street. |
| A-2 Calvin | 1037 Spring Street. |
| A-3 Charles | 344 Spruce Street. |
| A-4 John | 544 Centre Avenue. |

- B George Hinnerschitz.

We do not know the names of any of George's children, but he had a grandson, Samuel, which follows:

- B-11 Samuel Hendershot.
Hannah Koch, wife.

Five Children

B-111 Benjamin

B-112 Sarah

C-4 Rebecca Married John Clouser of Upper Bern, Pennsylvania.C-5 Louvina Married James Adams of Sinking Springs, Pennsylvania.

C-6 August Married Miss Wilson

August was a lawyer in Philadelphia. When he went to Philadelphia, he took all the family records with him and they were never seen afterward.

Conrad had an estate of 200 acres of land in Muhlenburg Township, Berks County, and was considered a well-to-do farmer.

The only genealogy from here on are the family of Conrad Hin-nerschitz. Follow carefully the changes of the name in spelling throughout this family.

C-2 William Hinnerschitz, born 1809. Died 1871 in Mooresburg, Pennsylvania.

After William took possession of his father's farm, he gave an acre of ground from the farm, at the crossroads near Tuckertown, Pennsylvania, for a church. The first church was built in 1849, a belfry was donated in 1889, and the church was rebuilt in 1909. A cemetery of over five acres and a church are at this spot now, and is known as the "Hinnerschitz" Church Cemetery. William managed his father's farm for eighteen years, then moved

CHAPTER 15

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

HENDERSHOTS IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

There is no real proof as to how many different Hendershots were in the Revolutionary War.

Pennsylvania Archives lists:

Michael Hendershot from Bedford County and Northumberland County.

Jacob Hendershot from Bedford County and Northumberland County.

John Hendershot of Bedford County, Pension # S9574.

New Jersey Archives lists:

Abraham Hendershot from Hunterdon County.

Michael Hendershot from Sussex County.

William Hendershot from Sussex County.

Jacob Hendershot from Sussex County.

Canada History lists:

John Hendershot, killed at the battle of Queensbury Heights.

Peter Hendershot from Welland County.

History tells us that John and Peter served as British Loyalists.

So there were at least seven Hendershots in the Revolutionary War. I cannot find any absolute proof that the Michael and Jacob from Pennsylvania were the same Michael and Jacob from New Jersey, so there could have been nine in the War.

FOUR PLACES NAMED HENDERSHOT

Hendershot Post Office, Ohio. 1895.

Belmont County, Washington Township.

Hendershot's Corners, Oregon.

Hendershot's Crossing, Iowa.

Camp Hendershot, Iowa — near Davenport Iowa.

Named for Colonel Henry Bascom Hendershot (Civil War).

German Valley has changed to Long Valley, New Jersey.

New Germantown has changed to Oldwick, New Jersey.

This is where our ancestors settled.
